

The Caledonian Mercury.

Edinburgh, Tuesday, April 15, 1729.

From the Whitehall Evening Post, April 8.

Amsterdam, April 15.

Letters from Embden import, That the Subdelegates of the Imperial Commission had rejected the Submission formerly mentioned, under Pretence it was not signed by those Magistrates whom the Remonents had deposed; and at the same time declared, that they would give them but to the 10th Instant to send a Submission such as they prescrib'd.

London, April 8.

Extract of a Letter from Jamaica, Jan 18.

The Council of War sate the 9th instant, when the Governor, in a Speech, told them, That the Occasion of their Meeting was to advise about proper Measures against the publick Security; the Preparations and Conduct of the Spaniards in Europe, and their continued Depredations, and interrupting of our lawful Trade in these Parts, by such as are supposed to act by Orders from thence, make the much-desir'd Peace at least but dubious, and lays us under an indisputable Obligation to provide against any Insults or Surprizes; as indeed he was ordered to do by his Majesty's special Command, upon just Suspicion, that their Naval Armaments pointed this way. He then recommended several Matters, which he thought requisite to be done on this Occasion, and gave them some Instructions for their Government, in case of an Invasion. We are accordingly here busy in repairing the Fortifications, and making other Preparations for our Defence.

London, April 8. On Sunday a Coach and six belonging to a Swedish Gentleman of Distinction, who was going to Dover in his way to Seissins, broke down under the Gate at Temple-Bar; but no Damage happened beside retarding the Journey.

We hear that a Ship of 96 Tons is bought up, and now painting and gilding near Ratcliff Cross, is a very handsome and grand Manner, in order to sail to Windsor when the Court is there, to entertain the Nobility and Gentry on board for their Diversion.

London, April 8. Yesterday the Passengers of the Ipswich Coach, being 3 Women and a Gentleman, were robb'd: The latter, to secure his Money, had tied 35 Guineas in the Corner of his Shirt, which the Robbers having Information of, told him they wanted that Money, and perceiving he was not inclined to deliver, they without any further Hesitation cut off the Corner of the Gentleman's Shirt; as also cut open the Stays of one of the Women, who had conveyed two Diamond Rings and several Guineas down her Bosom. After which they robbed the Coachman of 4 l. and then took a Portmanteau and a Box, wherein were several Things of Value. As they were marching off with their Booty, they returned the Coachman his Money, thinking they had made a sufficient Collection, being about 130 l.

From St. James's Evening-Post, April 8.

Vienna, March 26. Frequent Conferences are holden at Court upon Foreign Affairs, and particularly those which retard the Negotiations of Peace.

Vienna, April 2. Twenty five Vessels are gone down the Danube for Orsova, Zembvaer, &c. as also a sufficient Number of Workmen and Engineers, to repair the Fortifications of diverse Towns for their necessary Defence.

Dantzick, March 29. The Deputies sent by the Protestants in Poland to Berlin, are returned from thence, highly satisfied with the Assurances given them by his Prussian Majesty, That he will remedy their Grievances, by employing his good Offices at the approaching Diet of Grodno, to prevent their being any more disturbed in the free Exercise of their Religion.

Hamburg, April 8. We have Advice from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark has given the Directors of the East India Company 2 Months Time to consider, whether they will carry on the Trade

Trade or not: For that if they chuse to drop it, his Majesty is determined to take it up on his own Account, were it only to observe his Regalia to a Punctilio.

From the Evening Post, April 8.

Hamburg, April 8. My Lord Glenorchy arrived here the 6th from Copenhagen; and 'tis said, his Excellency will set out Tomorrow or the Day following directly for London, without passing by the Way of Berlin.

Paris, April 15. The 20th past died in the Diocese of Leflor, a Midwife, named Jeanne de Paille, aged 115 Years complete.

London, April 8. We hear his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales has laid aside his intention of going to New-market this Season.

Some Days ago Robberies were committed on the Bury, Cambrige and Norwich Coaches, in Epping Forrest, by 2 Highway Men. The Cambrige Coachman was beaten by them, because his Company was none of the richest; though it might have been remembred, Canab. ir. vacuus, are three Words. The Norwich Coachman was shot at for demanding Leave to go forward when all was lost. A Passenger of the Bury Coach, who lost £. 5 and 2 Rings, by putting a good Face on forced Obedience, had his Rings again at his Request; a Boy was called off the Coach to carry them to him, and had 6 Pence given him for his Pains by the Highway Men.

The Convocations of Canterbury and York are prorogued to Tuesday the 28th next Month.

There is Advice from Turin, that her Royal Highness the Princess of Piedmont, was brought to Bed of a Daughter the 25th of March, N. S.

Wye's Letter verbatim, London, April 10.

Since our last arrived a French Mail, and two from Flanders.

According to some Accounts by the former Mail, the King of Spain, in Answer to the Memorial presented to him the 14th past, in relation to the Grievances suffered by the English from the Spaniards in America, &c. declared he was naturally disposed to live in Peace and Amity with Great Britain, and the other Powers in Alliance with her, and to do whatever Justice demanded of him, in order to maintain the same. Mean time, Letters from Cadiz by the French Mail say, that the British and Dutch Ministers had on the 28th past another Conference with the Marquis of Paz, particularly on the Affair of the Indulto; but nothing was done therein, his Catholick Majesty still insisting to have first an Account of the Charges he has been at in bringing home the Galleons, being resolved, with all his Pretensions to Justice, to regulate the Indulto thereby; whereas he ought to consider the just Occasion he has given for our sending a Squadron to block up the Galleons, and the great Charge attending it, besides the Loss of so many able and skilful Sailors.

The most strict Union and Harmony continues amongst the Allies of Hanover, and are resolved not to be amused or trifled with. The Advices from Paris of the 16th instant, relate, That the Duke de Boufflers was instantly to set out for his Government of French Flanders, and that Monsieur de Lisle, an old Brigadier of the King's Army, under the Direction of the Count de Belisle is to command the Camp which is to be formed between Metz and Thionville, while the Fortifications of these two Places are repairing.

The Fire which broke out on Tuesday last in the Burying Vault of St. Clements Danes in the Strand, occasioned by unsloked Lime, which was put under a dead Corpse in the Coffin, burnt the greatest Part of 13 others before it was extinguisht'd, which was done by Mr. Cole an Engineer, by stopping up the Furnells made to give Ait to the Vault, and carry out the Scent.

'Tis said, such a horrid Scene of Villany has been discovered by the Committee appointed to inspect the Prisons of this City, particularly that of the Fleet, as must be shocking to the highest Degree to those who shall read the Report thereof, 4000 of which will be printed Tomorrow to be distributed to the Members.

One Mrs. Penelope Aubin has hired Sir Richard Steel's, now Mrs. Topham's great Room in York-Buildings, and stiles it the Ladies Opera, and undertakes to oppose that of Mr. Henly's, and will begin next Tuesday on the Subject of Detraction, and on the Tuesday following on that of Hypocrisy, and has already got many Subscriptions, being noted noted for extraordinary Learning, Parts and Wit, mission, and Captain Israel Sparks appointed Commander, and proposes not to meddle with Matters of Religion or Politicks.

To Day all the Charity Children of this City and Suburbs went to the Church of St. Sepulchres, and Dr. Rogers, Rector of St. Giles Cripplegate, preached a Sermon suitable to the Occasion.

'Tis expected that soon after the Arrival of their Excellencies Mr. Walpole and Mr. Stenhouse at the Place of Congress, the Fate of Europe will be known as to Peace or War.

Mean Time we are preparing with great Affiduity against all Events.

From the London Evening-Post, April 10.

Brussels, April 15. 'Tis advised from Madrid, that immediately after the Arrival of the Galleons the King of Spain wrote a Letter to the Emperor with his own Hand, to assure his Imperial Majesty, that all the Arrears of the Subsidies due to him shall now be paid out of hand. They add, that his Catholick Majesty still adheres to his Demand of the Restitution of Gibraltar and the Island of Minorca; pretending, that the Promise that had been made him that they should be restored, was the chief Inducement of his entring into the Quadruple Alliance.

The Heats of the different Factions in Poland seem to forbode no good Issue to the Diet of Grodno, whenever it happens to be held; the Time of which is still uncertain.

London, April 10. This Day at Noon a Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland was to be appointed by his Majesty.

From the St. James's Evening-Post, April 10.

Cadiz, April 1. Some of the Men of War lately arrived with the Galleons, are gone up the Creek to be refitted; 3 of which are already refitted, and ready to put to Sea, 'tis said, to cruize on the Algerines; tho' it is not improbable they may be designed to bring home the Treasure which should have come with the Galleons. The missing Galleon, call'd the Unicorn, arrived here last Night. As these Ships separated at Sea, 'tis surprizing all of them escaped the Algerines.

London, April 10. Yesterday, at a Board of Admiralty, a 6th Rate of 20 Guns was put in Com-

The Officers of the Regiments at Gibraltar have had Notice to go over to their Regiments with all Speed.

S. S. Stock, 97, 14th.

From the Evening Post, April 10.

London, April 10. All the King's Yachts are furnishing with new Furniture, as Beds, &c. and to be completed in 3 Weeks.

Sir Charles Wager is to set out on Wednesday the 16th, for Portsmouth, to take upon him the Command of the Fleet now equipping.

The Rt. Honourable the Earl of Kintore arrived in Town last Monday from his Travels. As did on Tuesday the Rt. Hon. Lord Anne Hamilton, Brother of his Grace the Duke of Hamilton.

Edinburgh, April 15. Last Week a Boat belonging to Musselburgh was cast away near that Place; but by timely Assistance of other Boats, only one Man perished.

We are credibly informed that last Week a Gentlewoman of this City was safely brought to bed in the 54th Year of her Age; and that lately another Woman was delivered in her 59th Year.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Just now published,

The First Volume of the Civil History of the Kingdom of Naples: Wherein is contained the History of that Kingdom (comprising also the general Affairs of Europe) under the Romans, Goths, Greeks, Longobards, Normans, and the Princes of the House of Svevia till the Death of the Emperor Frederick II. in the Year 1250. With the History of the Civil, Canon and Feudal Laws, the Ecclesiastical Polity, the Succession of the Popes, and by what subtle Arts the Pontificate gain'd upon the Regale. Where the Author clearly demonstrates, that the Temporal Dominion and Power exercised by the Popes, has been altogether owing to the Ignorance and Connivance of, or Concessions extorted from Secular Princes during the dark Ages, &c.

Written in Italian by Pietro Giannone, Civilian and Advocate in Naples, and published Anno 1723. Translated into English by Captain JAMES OGILVIE. Printed at London Anno 1729.
